Dear Chuck:

Unfortunately, I had to give Carlton Press in New York City the "go ahead" on Three American Revolutions. I would have liked nothing better than for Royal Publishers to handle this book because I think you could have given it the kind of exposure and sale that the material warrants. Unfortunately, the matter was too involved and commitments too full made for there to be any change of direction. I suggest that you return the manuscript I sent you and that we simply look forward to working together on the next one!

Thank you so much for your warm, personal interest. It has been a real encouragement to me. If I can be of any help on manuscript evaluation of any kind, feel free to call on me.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John:

I have been waiting to hear from you as to when you will be in Nashville again. Last month when you were here I was in Europe and did not get to see you. Have you any more news on your manuscript, Three American Revolutions, from the other publishing company? We are presently at a standstill. We cannot take any action until we hear from you.

We hope things are going well for you at Highland and in your other activities. Let us hear from you.

Sincerely,

Charles Moore
